Dear Parent/Guardian:

In accordance with Governor Chris Christie's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, John F. Kennedy Elementary School has designated the first week in October as the "Week of Respect". Throughout this week the students will have opportunities to participate in activities focused on preventing harassment, intimidation and bullying. Additionally throughout the year, your child will receive age appropriate education/prevention programs and instruction focusing on preventing harassment, intimidation and bullying.

Below is a schedule of the activities planned for this week at John F. Kennedy Elementary School.

Sincerely,

Lisa Parker
Principal
